I'm a graduate Master student graphic design at Sint-Lucas School of Arts in Antwerp. It has been a hardworking four years but also four years of creative fun and a growing passion for graphic design. You can never be overeducated (and overdressed), so I did a postgraduate Digital Marketing & Communication. This is a little resume to show what my skills and interests are.

On my website www.yhgraphicdesign.com you can find all my work till now.
